- Language placement tests: Applicants must sit a language placement test to determine their suitability for the course. Entry into these courses is subject to the successful passing of a placement test. If the applicant's language skills are determined as being too advanced for their chosen language course (or do not meet the minimum language requirement for entry), the applicant may be given the opportunity to study an alternative UQ language course more appropriate to their language skill level. This is determined on a case-by-case basis, and is dependent on course and quota availability, and approval from the School of Languages and Cultures, the Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences Faculty, and UQ Admissions. Further information regarding placement test will be provided prior to enrolment.

Quotas: Some language courses have a limited number of places available, therefore not all suitably qualified applicants will be offered a place.

If an applicant misses out on a place in a relevant language course, they may be offered an alternative ESP course. Note that the student must meet any prerequisites (if applicable) for the alternative course.

[#] MUSC110 special entry requirements: Entry to this course may be subject to attending and successfully passing an audition (audition date to be confirmed). To be offered an audition, applicants must be enrolled in Senior English in Semester 1 Year 11.

Course information in this brochure is subject to change, and is correct at time of printing.

Further information on each course can be found at esp.uq.edu.au
